Aspiring HR & People Operations Professional | TA • Onboarding • Employee Engagement | Ex-TATA Intern | Aspire Leaders Program Fellow

Patna, Bihar, India

Summary

I am a detail-oriented BBA student at the International School of Management, Patna, passionate about building a strong career in Human Resource Management. My experiences across different business domains have shaped my understanding of how people, performance, and organizational culture drive success.

My professional journey includes:

HR Intern at ADM Education & Welfare Society and iLearnings, where I worked on recruitment, employee engagement, onboarding, and HR operations, gaining hands-on exposure to people management.

Retail Internship at CaratLane – A TATA Product, where I handled end-to-end retail operations — from customer interaction, billing, and inventory management to team coordination and sales reporting — helping me understand employee behavior, motivation, and real-world teamwork dynamics.

Aspire Leaders Program 2025 (Harvard Faculty-Led) – strengthened my leadership, communication, and emotional intelligence, enhancing my ability to work effectively with diverse teams.

Google's VAANI Project Intern – supported AI-driven initiatives, improving my analytical and collaboration skills.

I'm particularly interested in HR roles that involve talent acquisition, employee engagement, learning & development, and organizational strategy.

Open to: HR internships, management trainee programs, and entry-level roles where I can contribute to people-centric growth and continue learning as an aspiring HR professional.
